Matthew C. Moschella is a partner in the firm's Litigation and Employment Departments.

In addition to representing clients in all types of civil litigation, he is a member of the firm's Professional Liability Group. Matt counsels clients in various industries on employment risk management issues, including employment contracts, employee handbooks, non-compete, non-solicitation, and non-disclosure agreements.

Matt gained valuable experience after law school as a law clerk to the Hon. Judith Gail Dein, U.S. Magistrate Judge, U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts. During law school, he interned with a District Judge at the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the civil division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts, two Boston civil litigation firms, and the Massachusetts Department of Social Services' legal department.
